Are expected to die.

Milwaukee, March 28.—A special to the Evening Wisconsin from Bessemer, Mich., says the boarding house of Bond & Claney at Colby, Mian., burned about 4 o'clock this morning. Twelve persons perished in the flames. The building was a two-story frame and burned like tinder, leaving no time for alarm after the fire was discovered. Twenty-one boarders occupied rooms in the second story; only nine of these escaped by jumping from windows; several were seriously injured, but none fatally. The bodies were so completely charred as to prevent identification. No clue to the origin of the fire. The victims were all single men.

BESSEMER, Mich., March 23.-Early this morning twelve miners were burned to death in a boarding house at this place and several others were seriously injured. The occupants of the building were all asleep and the fire was first discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Miller who kept the board-Mr. and Mrs Miller who kept the boarding house, and when they were awakened the whole building was in flames. They narrowly escaped with their lives and did not even have time to awaken the twenty miners who were sleeping on the second floor. When they awoke the building was one mass of flames. Several men who were not overcome by the smoke jumped from the windows and exceed built twelve from the windows and escaped, but twelve perished. Their names were: James Ryan, John Garvey, John Ball, William Williams, J. Brossa, Henry Soam, Simon Riszo, Max Privide, John Lyon, John Carter, Marchelle, Marchelle, Marchel

Chicago Politics.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 23.-The Democrats of Chicago placed in nomination the following ticket: For mayor, Carter H. Harrison; for city treasurer, John H. Mc-

Harrison; for city treasurer, John H. Mc-Avoy; for city attorney, Charles Allen; for city clerk, Henry Stuckar.

Mayor Harrison was chosen on the first ballot by acclamation. Mr. DWeitt C. Creiger had been placed in nomination, but before a ballot had been taken his name was withdrawn. Mr. Harrison ascended the platform and made a speech reviewing his official career and declared that he had been unjustly abused by the press. He declared that he had reached an age when he desired to retire from political life and he would have to decline the itical life and he would have to decline the nomination. Shortly after he had left the stage he returned followed by a crowd of friends and said he would accept the nom-

The Missouri Flood. St. Pavi., Minn., March 23.—A Pioneer Press special from Bowie, Dak., says: The water has backed in Swan creek and carried off the bridge between Lebeau and Scranton and flooded the bottom lands eight feet deep. It is believed that several Indians have been drowned.

A special from Mandan, Dak, says: The water fell two feet today. The Heart river has not yet broken, but most of the water has passed under the ice so no dam age is anticipated. Aside from the rail-road tracks the damage by the flood in Mandan will not be over $1,000.

DALTIMORS, March 23.—It is now stated on good-authority that the option will remain open to the Ives-Staynert syndicate for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad until April I. Mr. Garrett, it is stated, cleared $200,000 out of the Sully syndicate. It is also stated that the Garrett interest has purchased all of the stock of the John Hopkins University. None of the stock of the row right.

A Collapse in Business.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 23.—Rumors were thick today as to the lesses that would be sustained by the collapse of the manufacturing firm of James and John Hunter, growing out of the senior member's peculiar transactions. John F. Keen, the head of the firm of Keen, Bodine & Co., who brought the suit, said this morning that the receiver of John Hunter was entirely ignorant of the transactions. It is a well known fact that Mr. Hunter has a well known fact that Mr. Hunter has been practically out of the firm since he first became receiver of taxes six years ago, although of course the business has been managed by his brother with the receiver's approval. John Hunter declines to talk of the matter, saying it has taken him by surprise. Additional attachments were is-

Riotous Poles.

Riotous Poles.

CHICAGO, March 23.—A special from Detroit says the Polish church troubles seem to be quieted down somewhat by the resignation of Pambroski and his curate, Kolasinski, and whom the Poles will not allow to enter St. Albert's church. The Kolasinski faction telegraphed to Bishop Borgess at New Baltimore to the effect that Kolasinski had built the church and no one else should preach in it. Proceedings have been begun against thirty of the rioters who are followers of Kolasinski.

Emports Excerpts.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan, March 13.—The fight over the city election is waxing hotter every day. The law and order element, supported by the leading ladies of the city, is thoroughly organized and is actively at work, as is also the whisky alliance which is using its best efforts to create strife be-tween the native and foreign born women. The total registration up to this evening is 6,000, of this number 2,200 are woman. Registration closes Friday night and the city clerk's office will be literally crowded until that time.

A Stupendous Scheme

New York, March 23.—The Commercial Advertiser asserts that a scheme is on foot for revolutionize the passenger and freight traffic in and out of this city. The plan, as outlined by it, proposes to do away with the transportation of passen gers by ferries and floats to and from Jersey city and an abandonment of the Grand Central depot at 42od street, now used in connection with the traffic of the New England states and of that carried by the New York Central and its connections.

In place of this the proposed under ground railroad system is to be used for the new form the northern end of the island, and an elevated road with a half dozen tracks is to be constructed along the east bank of the Rearching the Buina.

Bearching the Haddock Murder Case.

Stoux Crry, lows, March, 23.—The work of securing a jury in the Haddock during the state. The defence made six permentory challenges so that twelve yet remains which may exhaust the entire panal as now called. Seventy extra men have been summoned for this case, so there is but little doubt that a jury will be selected from their number tomorrow. Much interest is manifested in the city and the court house has been filled all day, but only one or two ladies were noticed. Mrs. Area dorff and children did not appear during the afternoon. Leavitt, the informer, is in the city but does not leave his hotel, thinking that the outside air would not be beneficial. He need fear no danger, however, as there is a widely different feeling here now from that which prevailed six months ago. It is thought the plans, as to be constructed along the east bank of Bearching the Buina.
